* It was St Augustine who in praise of Mary's faith, said her greatness lay first in conceiving the Word in her heart, before she did so in her body (Augustine of Hippo Sermo 25, 7-8)

** Marists hope to give witness to a truly Marian face of the Church, one characterized by loving, simple service, family spirit, shared communion and openness to the Holy Spirit, believing with Mary that 'all things are possible in him who strengthens me'. (Phil. 4:13)
